BOOK REVIEW OF THE MONTH

Hetty Feather

Jacqueline Wilson

Set in Victorian England, this book is about Hetty, a girl who is sent to the Foundling Hospital as a baby with no family. She is fostered by a new family and gets a great life. Sadly, she gets sent back to the Foundling Hospital at only 5 years old when she has to train to become a servant. At first, she is miserable and bad-tempered, but she makes new friends and wants to find out who her real mother is. This story teaches me the importance of family and how we should be grateful for the family and things in life that we have.
